RODEO ARENA RULES

1. Participants must wear a belt with a small buckle, long pants and running shoes. No jewelry or hats.
2. Participants will be using rope halters that are supplied by the Calf Scramble Committee.
3. A halter cannot be used as a lariat.
4. Halters must be placed on the head of the animal in the usual way. (It is suggested that the supervisors of all participants instruct them of the proper use of a rope halter and how to place it on the head of calf before coming to the show to participate in the scramble).
5. At no time will participants be permitted to tie the rope/halter to his/her body or belt.
6. Each participant will attempt to catch and halter one of the calves released without assistance.
7. Each participant who catches a calf is required to lead it across the finish line without assistance.
8. If a participant has control of a calf, no other participant may touch the calf unless it breaks away from the first participant.
9. If a participant catches the calf by the tail, he or she will be allowed a reasonable amount of time to work up to the calf's head; otherwise, the referee/committeeman will order them to let the calf go.
10. If two or more participants catch the same calf, the calf will be turned loose.
11. A participant who secures and properly halters a calf and leads it across the finish line will be declared a winner, when so indicated by the committee/referee. Only a committee member or referee can declare a winner.
12. Undue roughness will not be allowed.
13. Poor sportsmanship automatically disqualifies any scramble contestant
14. All Washington County Calf Scramble winners will take pictures with sponsors and other winners immediately following Calf Scramble contest at a location to be announced.
